The John Gerig Family Record

1806 - 1953

COMPILED BY
R. E. ROTH
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA
1953

FOREWORD

When the John Gerig Reunion Committee met to prepare for the 1953 reunion, discussion led to a sense of the need for a Who's Who of the family. Some of those who are younger seem able to see only the leaves of the family tree. They desire to see the whole tree in perspective. In order to meet this need, action was taken to appoint an historian with the request that a basic genealogical survey be made. The committee was unanimous in its decision that R. E. Roth be appointed for this task. We believe that the volume which is now in your hand bears testimony to the fact that a right choice was made.

THE RECORD

The record has sought to give so fully and accurately as it has been provided, the information as to names, birth dates, marriage dates, death dates, etc. In order to conserve space, and to reduce production costs, no effort has been made to note places of birth, death, burial, residence; or occupation. Some errors may have occurred, since the data has needed to be gathered from numerous sources. The helpful co-operation of many individuals has made the task a lighter one.

It is hoped that the record will be a continuing source of pleasure, and of interesting information about those members of the Gerig family by direct descent, as well as those who have made choice to join themselves with us.

* * * * * * * * * * * *

Throughout the record, the first numeral opposite each name indicates the generation numbered from John Gerig. The second numeral indicates the order of birth of the individual in the particular family.

A feature of the family which is worthy of note, is the number who have been, and are presently engaged in active Christian Service as ministers, ministers' wives, missionaries, etc. . Following is a partial list to which, in all probability, the names of others should be added:

Of all those, God has record, and they shall in no-wise lose their reward.

A HISTORY OF THE GERIG FAMILY IN RHYME

Given at The Gerig Reunion, Sept. 1, 1930

It truly is delightful to meet in this way,
On this pleasant annual Labor Day;
A history of the Gerig family I'd like to give
'Twas in France they first did live.
A small rented plot of land they had,
And farming--it with cows was rather bad.
It had high hills with low marshy land;
One place trembled when upon it they'd stand.

'Twas very little by farming they made,
For Grandpa was a weaver by trade;
On this trade he worked hard and long,
And so they got fairly well along
As weavers they had so many clothes to wear,
They did not worry when one garment did tear;
Sometimes they put off washing for many a day,
And still had plenty of clean clothes laid away.

There were eight children in the family, you see-
Six sons and two daughters, all known to me;
Uncles: Christ, Joseph, Andrew, John, Peter, and Jake,
Aunt Barbara, Magdalena, my mother, eight did make,
Aunt Barbara was the oldest of them all,
Uncle Jake the youngest, whom I but faintly recall.

My mother never went a day to school,
She early worked hard at the weaver's tool;
As she was quite apt, and quick to learn,
'Twas thought best she help a living to earn;
Yet mother could read as I seldom heard,
'Twas so easy for her to pronounce a hard word;
She could memorize Scripture, and many a song,
And repeat whole chapters, although they were long.

Their house and barn was under one roof.
'Twas built of stone and strong weather-proof;
There was no costly furniture around,
And the floor was just the bare ground.
One thing of which mother often did tell
Was a strong artesian, flowing well;
Flowing summer and winter, day and night,
Clear as crystal, to drink of it was a delight.

Grandpa was a preacher of the old Amish church,
This was a great burden causing him much to search;
As he could not memorize very well,
His burden was greater than one could tell.
On Sundays they walked nine miles to church,
They had plenty of time to meditate and search;
Sometimes they would stop for a lunch on the way,
At some bakery so as not to faint by the way.

As in France boys to manhood did grow,
They were compelled to the army service to go;
Grandpa Gerig was not so inclined to do,
As he also of America's freedom knew.
So arrangements were made for this long trip,
And in 1852 boarded an old sail-boat ship.

In those days passengers their own meals had to cook,
Uncle Joseph's lot was after this matter to look;
The voyage was rough, and very long;
Much they endured, with fewness of song;
Often the waves beat wild and high
Drenching those on deck, causing a wild cry.
Some days they made good progress ahead,
Sometimes they were driven about as far back,
Often times they were driven out of their track,
And feared they would suffer ship-wreck.

One time a man on the ship passed away,
They soon knew where to lay him away;
'Twas little if any ceremony they gave,
They sank him in the watery grave.

After about forty days at New York they did land,
The ground seemed to be moving, they could hardly stand;
Then all their trunks were stolen away,
They searched for them for many a day.
The man that hid them helped in searching too,
But left off, when once the hiding place they knew.
They finally got their trunks again,
And leaving New York they boarded some train.

Onward toward their destination they came,
But they must take a dreaded voyage again.
This voyage on Lake Erie they dreaded enough,
For it was reported as being awful rough;
But they were brought safely through again,
And then to the city of Toledo they came.

From Toledo to Fort Wayne on a canal they came,
The boat was drawn by mules that were tame;
So this trip also took some time,
As it was no twentieth century line.
The trace of the canal can still be seen,
North-west of Woodburn, and the river bridge it's inbetween.

From Fort Wayne to Leo then they came,
Walking all the way, as there was no train;
There were no paved or concrete roads,
They made slow progress with their loads.
There was so much of timber land,
And lots of mud and little sand;
But they came through without any harm,
And finally landed on the Abe Steiner farm.

Things were so inconvenient in those days.
Many hardships they endured in so many ways;

The country too was quite swampy and wet,
And often times a shaking fever they would get,
They were unused to farming the American way,
And often did hard work that did not pay;
They would spade the sod about the house,
The bare ground of France their memory did arouse.

Then after a few years of hardship and toil,
The time came for Grandpa to leave the spoil;
And some years later Grandma too passed away,
For in this world we've not long to stay.
As time went on, all their children too were laid away,
Awaiting the resurrection of that great day.

We hope to meet them in that better land,
Greeting them with joy, grasping their hand;
This pilgrim life will soon be past,
What will it be to be home at last?
So let us faithfully toil and journey on,
Until the final race and victory is won;
May none be missing at that great day,
To this end let us for each other pray.

N. E. Grabill.

In writing this history, no doubt errors were made as some of these things from my memory did fade; so please bear with me and mistakes overlook, as I'm no author and have never written a book.
